Dear Mr. Banker,

As I write to you these few lines, I want to first thank you for the “awesome” performance you displayed in Court.

I first-hand witnessed your work when you dismantled the defense witnesses in Vicente’s trial and I was impressed then.

But in yesterday’s proceedings, I got ring-side view of the legal specialization that only “few” Attorneys acquire. Not only did you dismantle the officer, but I felt you buried him, well, we did...that is. There is no “I” in team work.

The constitution does exist, and I know that God works in mysterious ways. And as you told me before, God is calling me thru you to walk in his righteousness. NARROW is the path, I realize that now.

Thank you Banker. My intentions are to fully compensate you, and some. Make no tarry, for money it is only material. I owe you more than what money can buy.

Eternal life is priceless. Thanks for shedding new life and “Hope” in me.

Sincerely,

Hebrews 13/1-3

P.S. there was this young lady in Court, who commented to me after the hearing, that you were a very good Attorney, she was highly impressed. She might have been an angel, but one never knows...Huh?
